

August 26, 2006

Login

Login
Sign up
Forgot Password?

Home | About Us | Feedback | Archive | Links | Subscribe | Advertising | Employment | Contact Us

Sections

- ▣ News
- ▣ Business
- ▣ Politics
- ▣ Tourism
- ▣ Health
- ▣ Entertainment
- ▣ Sports
- ▣ Op Ed
- ▣ Immigration
- ▣ Dis & Dat
- ▣ In the papers
- ▣ Profile
- ▣ Education
- ▣ Travel
- ▣ Models
- ▣ Newspapers
- ▣ Letters
- ▣ Forums

Article Search

News Search

Google Search

FREE SUBSCRIPTION

Email:

Go

Sister Sites

Trini Play Wraps Up Run At Fringe Festival

Caroline Neisha Taylor in a scene from 'Pack Light.' Photo: Hayden Roger Celestin

Hardbeatnews, NEW YORK, N.Y., Fri. Aug. 25, 2006: Trinidadian playwright and actor Caroline Neisha Taylor wraps up her play 'Pack Light' tomorrow night at the Fringe Festival in New York City.

'Pack Light,' a one-woman show at the Children's Theater, is a humorous play that focuses on squabbling Caribbean and British parentage, navigating U.S. life and airport security as a legal alien and being multiracial and bi-national in a world of too many check-boxes, that keeps asking: "So...what are you, anyway?" The play is directed by Daniel Banks and choreographed by Natalie Joseph-Settle, also of Trinidad.

Taylor is a honors degree graduate from Williams College and has

There's a reason why people are subscribing to us ...

Mighty Sparrow In West Indian Carnival Parade Flap - A HBN First

Mighty Sparrow (in orange shirt at r.) with HBN first HBN photo of the West Indian Carnival Parade Flap - A HBN First

EXCLUSIVE STORIES, PLUS DAILY COVERAGE OF IMMIGRATION, POLITICS, BUSINESS, ENTERTAINMENT AND SPORTS

SIGN UP TODAY!
WWW.HARDBEATNEWS.COM

Internet Partners

Photo Gallery

CWNN Launch Party

Guyana Flood Photos

Labor Day 2004

worked, studied and performed in the United States, Costa Rica, Trinidad and Great Britain. Previous versions of 'Pack Light' were staged at La MaMa E.T.C. in New York and Williams College as 'Fragments of Creole Memory' and 'Dis, Dat & the Other.' Other theatrical performances include: David Rudder & Tony Hall's 'The Brand New Lucky Diamond Horseshoe Club,' (Queen's Hall, Trinidad); 'The Date' (Looking Glass Forum, NY); 'The Olympians: Birth of Athena,' (Ohio Theatre, NY); 'The Bacchae,' 'The Seagull,' 'Prostitutes' and the title role in Countee Cullen's 'Medea,' (Williamstheatre, MA).

The Fringe Festival is celebrating its 10th year and is the largest multi-arts festival in North America. The play will hold its final fun tomorrow, August 26th from 8:45 p.m. at 52 White Street, off Broadway and two blocks from Canal Street. For more tickets call 212-279-4488. – Hardbeatnews.com

Send Story To a Friend

Reproduction in whole or part of our news, is available at a cost and CANNOT be replicated otherwise. Contact us at: news@hardbeatnews.com for reprint queries. HardBeatnews.com welcomes op eds, story ideas and pro bono submissions. However, ALL PRESS RELEASES MUST BE SUBMITTED THROUGH OUR SISTER SITE: CaribPR.com. We also cannot be held responsible for the opinions of writers as expressed in the 'Dis & Dat' column and our Op Ed pieces.

Penn Relays

RNC 2004

Your Ad here

Click Here

Come to Expedia?..

Find the who that's Get started now

Contact Us

Hard Beat News.Com
Contact the editor
at 718-476-3616
and Email: news@hardbeatnews.com

For Marketing Opportunities
Contact:
marketing@caribpr.com

Copy rights reserved to Hard Beat News 2005. Site Design by Pixel Studios